Washington, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

The following is in response to the Office Action mailed February 14, 2002, having a three-month statutory period for response set to expire on May 14, 2002. The following amendments and remarks are respectfully submitted.

In the specification:

Please replace paragraphs starting on page 3, line 1 and extending to page 5, line 29 with the following:

SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION

a1

The present invention is directed to a selectable deformable housing assembly for an implantable medical device (IMD). An IMD housing according to the present invention includes a first shell and a second shell. The first and second shells include an inner surface and an outer surface, respectively. The outer surfaces of the first and second shells are fabricated from a material compatible with body fluids. The implantable medical device further includes a battery enclosure defined by a cover and all or a portion of the first shell of the IMD housing. The cover of the battery enclosure is disposed between the inner
